Royal Museums Greenwich

Royal Museums Greenwich is home to the Royal Observatory & the Peter Harrison Planetarium, Cutty Sark, National Maritime Museum and the Queen's House.

A UK top 10 visitor attraction, Royal Museums Greenwich is the place to discover sea and space exploration, British heritage, royal history, art and pioneering architecture.

The four landmark attractions are located within the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Maritime Greenwich, one of London's most charming areas. All the world class sites are within easy walking distance of each other.

2022 is an exciting year for Royal Museums Greenwich, with major exhibitions, events and new tours taking place throughout the year.

Cutty Sark Rig Climb Experience is a brand-new adventure at Cutty Sark opening 2 April 2022. For the first time since arriving in Greenwich in 1954, visitors to Cutty Sark will be able to climb the famous masts and enjoy views of the River Thames and London.

Royal Museums Greenwich: National Maritime Museum

The National Maritime Museum will host Canaletto's Venice Revisited, a major exhibition displaying a complete set of 24 Venetian views painted by Canaletto in the 1730s. The works, from the world-famous collection at Woburn Abbey, form the largest single commission the Italian artist ever received.

Canaletto's Venice Revisited will reassess Canaletto at the height of his career, looking beyond the broad views he is famous for to also closely examine the features that bring his Venice to life.

The hugely popular Astronomy Photographer Exhibition of the Year returns to celebrate the very best in astrophotography from around the world at the National Maritime Museum.

Behind the scenes at the National Maritime Museum is a tour at the Prince Philip Maritime Collections Centre. The Prince Philip Maritime Collection Centre is where the majority of the National Maritime Museum's collection is stored and cared for when not on display to the public, just a 15-minute journey from Maritime Greenwich. The tours of the Collections Centre give guests the opportunity to go behind the scenes and see how the organisation cares for the largest collection of maritime objects in the world, including surviving pieces from the Titanic and relics belonging to Admiral Nelson.

Royal Museums Greenwich: Cutty Sark

Cutty Sark is the world's last surviving tea clipper celebrated for her record-breaking passages around the globe. An audio guide at Cutty Sark has been added to enhance the visitor experience by bringing the story of the ship to life. The guide is available in English, German, French, Spanish, Italian, Mandarin, Japanese, Korean, Brazilian Portuguese and Russian. The audio guide is included in the cost of entry and takes about an hour to explore all levels of the ship.

Cutty Sark Rig Climb Experience is a brand-new adventure at Cutty Sark opening on 2 April 2022. Climb from Main Deck up the ship's rigging, to experience the extreme heights the ship's crew had to scale on a daily basis when out at sea. See beautiful views of the Thames and the London city skyline from the top of a true London icon before your zip line ascent to the ground below.

Experience the History of Tea Tour, new to Cutty Sark. Find out about the international story behind the humble cup of tea, before it became Britain's favourite drink. Learn about the role Cutty Sark played in bringing tea to the UK and discover the influence of tea on British culture and society once it arrived. Finish the tour with a cup of tea underneath the ship's glorious copper hull.

Royal Museums Greenwich: Royal Observatory

Explore time and space at the Royal Observatory and stand on the Meridian line at the home of the Greenwich Mean Time (GMT). Discover the site's rich history, from its royal heritage to its awe-inspiring Peter Harrison Planetarium, all set within Greenwich's beautiful park.

The Royal Observatory will be closed for essential refurbishment from 4 January until 31 March 2022. This is part of an exciting redevelopment project taking place at the home of Greenwich Mean Time. Visitors will not be able to access the historic buildings, Observatory galleries or the Prime Meridian Line courtyard during the closure period.

You can still book a show at London's only planetarium, explore the wonders of the night sky with expert astronomers and visit the Astronomy Photographer of the Year exhibition which is open every day at the National Maritime Museum.

Royal Museums Greenwich: The Queen's House

The Queen's House, in partnership with Woburn Abbey, showcases Woburn Treasures, a historic collaboration sees a variety of major art works from the private art collection of The Duke and Duchess of Bedford. The collection is considered to be one of the most important art collections still in private hands.

Highlights on display will include a full-length portrait of Anne of Denmark by Flemish artist Gheeraerts the Younger, a striking full length of Lady Elizabeth Keppel by Sir Joshua Reynolds and Canaletto's large-scale Regatta on the Grand Canal. Alongside these masterpieces, a selection of sculptures, ceramics and a silver-gilt toilette set spanning the 17th to 19th century will feature in the display.

Set in a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Queen's House Ice Rink is surrounded by iconic architecture, with views of Greenwich Park to the south and the glittering lights of Canary Wharf to the north, providing a backdrop of some of the best views in London, 17 November 2022 – 8 January 2023.

Old Royal Naval College

The Old Royal Naval College is the centrepiece of Maritime Greenwich, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with a long and celebrated 500-year history. Today it is a diverse cultural destination and one of London's most popular venues and visitor attractions.

Explore the peaceful riverside location and Sir Christopher Wren's iconic architecture. The stunning buildings and extensive grounds tell 500 years of remarkable history that lists an incredible cast of monarchs and famous British figures, from Henry VIII and Elizabeth I to Vice-Admiral Lord Nelson.

Visitors can explore 'Britain's Sistine Chapel', Sir James Thornhill's breath taking Baroque Painted Hall and its neighbour, the glorious Chapel of St Peter and St Paul. It's easy to escape the crowds and discover 40,000 square feet of awe-inspiring painted walls and ceiling. Painted Hall tickets include entry to the Chapel and the Skittle Alley where visitors can try their hand at Victorian bowling. Multimedia guides (in English, French, Spanish, Italian, Chinese Mandarin, German and Japanese) and guided tours are also included. History buffs can explore the room where Admiral Lord Nelson's body lay in state and can see the recently discovered Tudor foundations of Greenwich Palace in the King William Undercroft which also houses a new café, shop and interpretation gallery.

The new Coaches Welcome initiative allows up to two coaches per day onto the Old Royal Naval College campus enabling you and your group able to disembark on the site's main avenue. All coaches must be pre-booked and pre-approved.

Film & TV Location Tour at the Old Royal Naval College is the chance to experience a behind-the-scenes tour of "the most popular filming location in the world" (Empire magazine). From a starring role as Buckingham Palace in The Crown to 19th century revolutionary Paris in Les Misérables, the Old Royal Naval College has provided the setting for some of the most memorable scenes in major film and TV productions. The tour takes in more than 60 years of filming – both on the award-winning riverside grounds and inside the Painted Hall – and gives an insider’s view of how some of the biggest blockbusters come to life in Greenwich.

A new series of smartphone tours have been launched to help visitors explore the buildings and grounds of the Old Royal Naval College. Visitors can also download any of the three free self-guided tours of the Old Royal Naval College on the Smartify app. Tours include a Building Detectives tour, an architecture tour and a Greenwich Pensioners Tour.

The Painted Hall 360 virtual tour lets you marvel up-close at fire-breathing serpents, glistening jewels and bubble-blowing cherubs that are not clearly visible from the ground. You can pan around and zoom in to marvel at the details in ultra-high resolution and discover the stories behind the art. There is also a VR mode to use on smartphones. It’s available in English and British Sign Language (with subtitles).

On the River Thames

Beautifully positioned on the River Thames, Greenwich makes for a scenic and memorable visit to London and means you can connect to all parts of the Royal Borough via river transport.

Uber Boat by Thames Clippers

Go unlimited with Uber Boat by Thames Clippers and explore Greenwich by river with the new East Zone River Roamer. The East Zone River Roamer is the easiest way to connect all of the East and Southeast areas of London along the River Thames between Canary Wharf and Woolwich (Royal Arsenal), including Greenwich and North Greenwich piers.

News: Uber Boat by Thames Clippers is building UK's first hybrid high speed passenger ferries, set to launch in autumn 2022 and spring 2023. Leading the way in passenger boat design, the two new vessels, being built on the Isle of Wight, take strides in improving the sustainability credentials of the business as well as propelling the wider marine sector.

The Canteen is a new hub on Greenwich Peninsula with one bar and six independent vendors serving up fresh, nutritious and delicious irresistible treats from the world's streets. Take it to go or make time to dine on the terrace or mezzanine oasis. The canteen is open every day.

C1 Building in the Design District is an open and welcoming building, intent on fostering community. A rooftop basketball court crowns three storeys of studio space, all accessible via open-air staircases doubling as communal spaces.

The Bureau at Design District caters creative workspaces that provide individuals or businesses to connect and grow alongside like-minded people.

LHG (London Hotel Group)

LHG (London Hotel Group) has won planning permission to convert and extend the former Greenwich Magistrates' Court and two empty educational buildings into a 293-bed boutique hotel.

Located within the Ashburnham Triangle Conservation Area in Greenwich, project designed by Squire & Partners, it will retain the Grade II Listed Magistrates' Court and the two redundant school buildings, as well as reintroducing public access to the Court building and creating new green space and local amenities.

The ground floor of the former Magistrates' Court and one of the school buildings will contain front of house hotel services such as bar, restaurant and café, giving the buildings a new life and creating new amenities for both hotel guests and local residents. The new scheme will also include a range of public, semi-public and private green spaces, including a new public square, built around an existing mature tree, and animated by a restaurant or cafe. Further facilities include a gym, pool, conference centres and generous parking spaces.

Expected to open in 2022/23.

Crossrail: the Elizabeth line

The Elizabeth line is due to open in the first half of 2022. The new Crossrail service will reduce the journey time between Woolwich and the West End. The route will eventually pass through 41 stations from Reading and Heathrow in the west, through new twin-bore 21 km tunnels to Shenfield and Abbey Wood in the east.

Expected to open by June 2022.
